

FoodShare

WISCONSIN

Your Wisconsin QUEST card can be used to buy groceries, at swipe card terminals at stores taking part in FoodShare. It is a plastic debit card with your name, card number and the Wisconsin QUEST logo on it.

You must have your QUEST card with you at the store to purchase food using your FoodShare account.

Choosing a Personal Identification Number

When you receive your QUEST card, you will be asked to select a personal identification number (PIN) that must be used to access your benefits when using your QUEST card. You will choose four numbers that are easy for you to remember but hard for someone else to figure out. Keep your PIN a secret. Do not write your PIN on your card, your card carrier or keep your PIN in your wallet or purse.

Using Your QUEST Card

You can use your benefits to buy food at some farmers markets and at grocery stores that have the Quest® sign.

Your benefits will be put into your FoodShare account using an Electronic Benefits Transfer

(EBT) system. You can spend them by using your Wisconsin QUEST card. Your QUEST card lets you use your benefits at the swipe card terminals in the check-out line in food stores. You use your card like a debit card and there is no fee to you.

At the checkout lane, tell the clerk that you are using your QUEST card. Once your card has been swiped through the terminal at the check out counter, either by you or the clerk, you will enter your PIN. The PIN allows you to use your card.

Spending Benefits

Each month, you may use your QUEST card as often as you want and spend as much of your benefits as you want. You can leave as many benefits in your account as you wish at the end of each month to use in the following month. You should get a printed receipt at the time you make a food purchase with your QUEST card. The receipt will show the balance in your account. If you do not get a printed receipt, ask for one.

Authorized Buyer and Alternate Payee

You can choose an authorized buyer to help you use your FoodShare benefits. In addition to the card you receive, the authorized buyer will get a QUEST card with his/her name on it, and will have access to your FoodShare benefits to purchase food for your household.

You may also choose an alternate payee to use FoodShare benefits on your behalf. The alternate payee will receive a QUEST card with his/her name on it. You will not receive a QUEST card.

Once you tell someone your PIN and give them your card, they could use any or ALL of your benefits. These benefits will NOT be replaced. You may contact your worker to designate an “authorized buyer” or “alternate payee”.

You can cancel access to your QUEST card account that you have granted to others at any time. To cancel access to your account, call QUEST Customer Service.

Problems With Your QUEST Card

If You Forget Your PIN

If you are in the grocery store and enter the wrong PIN, you have two more chances that day to enter the right PIN. If you do not enter the right PIN by the third try, a “lock” is put on your card and you will not be able to use your card until the next day.

If You Move

If you plan to move, contact your FoodShare worker to report your new address. If a card is mailed to your old address, it will not be forwarded to your new address.

If You Move Out of State
